

War On Mosquitoes.
The Shippan Point property owners' association has awarded the contract to exterminate mosquitoes on Shippan Point, Stamford, to the United States Drainage and Irrigation company of New York. The contract calls for a drainage of over 200 acres of salt meadows in such a manner that this company guarantees to exterminate all mosquito breeding existing or likely to exist within the area. The last payment is contingent upon an inspection on the first of July disclosing the entire absence of mosquito breeding within the treated area.

Gilead Man Held in $1,000 for Assault With Intent to Kill

Monday morning James Sturt was before Justice of the Peace H. E. Buell at 8 o'clock and entered a plea of not guilty to the charge of assault with intent to kill. The prosecution was represented by Grand Juror E. E. Flote. The accused was without counsel, but was represented by his employer, J. D. Hunt.

Henry Hoffman offered testimony to the effect that Sturt, Keffe and others had been drinking Sunday afternoon at Sturt's house in Gilead, but that neither Sturt nor Keffe was so drunk as to not know what he was doing. Witness said that he had left the house to go home, when he heard the shots and returned to find Keffe would be a candidate for mayor or alderman this year.

Deputy Sheriff Fred Prentice of Gilead testified that he was notified of the affair, went to Sturt's house and after an investigation had placed Sturt under arrest.

Richard Sturt, a brother of the accused and host at the drinking party, said that he did not see the actual shooting. Keffe had brought two jugs of cider to his brother's house, and the two men, and they left, and a little more than a glass of whiskey.

Joseph Joyner and Fred Done when put upon the stand stated that Sturt was in the bedroom when Keffe went to state why he had shot Keffe. Something like a half an hour before the shooting Sturt had ordered them all out of the house, and they left, but soon returned. It is said that when they were ordered out Sturt had four-

No defense was entered Monday, but it is expected that Sturt will claim self defense. It was reported in Norwich Monday that Sturt had been upon his throat and had made the statement outside of the justice's court that he had been choking him just previous to his firing at Keffe with a revolver.

Probable cause was found by Justice Buell and Sturt was bound over to the next term of the superior court for Tolland county, which comes on the first Tuesday in December. Bail was fixed at $5,000. Inasmuch as the accused could not secure surety in that sum he was taken to Tolland Jail by Deputy Sheriff Fred Prentice.

Telephone communications with the Hartford hospital authorities disclose the fact that Keffe is practically in a coma and that his chances for recovery are.

Political Speculations.
Many stories have been going the rounds as to who would be the republican candidate for mayor, and up to date it is not known who that person is, and not a little anxiety is entertained by republican party leaders on that point.

Republicans have been saying all along that at the present time, a full or a majority of the board of aldermen, although a number of the present republican board have flatly announced their intention not to stand for a renomination.

Alderman Willard W. Hayden when approached relative to a renomination, intimated that at the present time at least he was not a candidate for renomination, but that he might change his mind.

It is understood that Alderman H. D. Pollard is not a candidate for renomination, and that Alderman F. M. Smith is also undecided. Alderman A. L. Gelinas said some one else could do the pushing hereafter, as much as to signify that he also was not a candidate this year.

Monday Alderman William A. Dawson, president of the board, who has been mentioned as a possible candidate for the office of mayor on the republican ticket, stated that he was ACCEPTED IN PART.

Final Account of the Administratrix of Estate of William Ross.

There was a hearing before Judge of Probate Merritt Welch of Chaplin Saturday afternoon on the acceptance of the final account of the administratrix of the estate of the late William Ross. The account was accepted in part, it being decided that some $2,000 be reserved or set aside by the estate to liquidate any expenses incident to the settlement of the alleged claim of Sarah E. Way that is pending, an appeal from the decision of the commissioners who heard and passed upon the same having been taken to the superior court.

Aside from this, the executrix, Mrs. Emily J. Ross, the widow, may proceed and settle the estate in conformity with the terms of the will. Requests were made to the court to order the sale of the property of the estate for the purpose of paying the claims of the estate, and the court granted the request.

Eastford Pastor Declines Call.
Rev. J. B. King of Eastford has declined the call extended him by the Chaplin Congregational church to become its pastor. His letter of declination was read Sunday. The vote calling him, it is understood, stood 11 in favor and 10 against.

Hunted Without a License.
It is believed that Paul Clement, whose walk unbecomingly out of the home of Justice of the Peace Fred A. Sackett of Andover, Saturday afternoon, was a preliminary incident to a hunt for hunting game without a license, now being arranged, was taken into custody Monday evening by Constable George E. Gilead, and taken to the prison at Richmond late Monday evening.

Seven new houses are to be erected at Plainfield for the Lawton Manufacturing company. Hiram S. Frank of Danieson has the contract for the building work and has already completed the underpinning for the new houses. The houses when completed will be a total of 14, erected by the company on their land opposite and west of their mill during the present year.

FOR NEW HIGH SCHOOL
Peck, McWilliams Co. of Norwich Were Lowest Bidders with $47,621.

The building committee met in the school room Monday evening and opened the amended bids for the construction of the new Windham high school. Peck, McWilliams Co. of Norwich submitted a bid for $44,986, with $75 to be deducted if carting stone is omitted. The bid of the H. W. Bates Co. of Danieson was $45,124, with $55 to be deducted if carting of stone is omitted. Both bids include rock and earth excavation.

The committee voted that the contract for building the high school including an assembly hall, but not the carving, except for the name, Windham high school, be awarded to Peck, McWilliams & Co. of Norwich for $47,621.

The committee voted to defer action on the heating and ventilating plant pending possible action concerning the construction of a special plant contemplated, provision for which is made in the fifth clause of the contract of the special town meeting called for Thursday.

OLIVER JACOBS PRESIDENT.
Heads Students at Worcester Tech. for Experiments With Wireless.

Oliver Jacobs of Danielson has been elected president of a class of forty-one students at the Worcester Polytechnic Institute for the study of wireless telegraphy. Many of the students in the electrical department are imbued with the possibilities for work in the field of wireless. Following along the line of experiments made at the school last year, more ambitious plans are being carried out by the students. They are carrying out a project of the Atlantic ocean, such long distance service being hindered only by the low power of the transmitting apparatus. If the 25 kilowatt could be radiated sufficiently, there is no doubt but that the signals could be carried across the Atlantic; but, due to the low aerial and the absorption of the metal roof of the building, it is not expected to realize this in practice.

A transmitting apparatus with a working radius of from 200 to 300 miles has also been ordered. Mr. Jacobs is the leading spirit in the wireless experimenting that is being done at the institute, and in his spare time he is working on a special city meeting, to carry drainage water from Grove and other streets in that vicinity to the Quinebaug river.

Country Life to Be Topic of Fall Pomona Meeting—Society Wedding at Pomfret—Belknap-Goodrich—Souvernir Taylor III.

The fall meeting of Quinebaug Pomona grange, No. 2, is to be held with Wolf Den grange on Saturday night of this week. A large gathering of Grangers from every part of Windham A. Husted will be in attendance.

In the morning the fifth degree will be conferred in full form by the degree team of Quinebaug Pomona, which has the reputation of being one of the best degree teams in Connecticut. It is expected that prominent Grangers from neighboring jurisdictions will be present to watch the work.

The class to receive the degree will be large one, more than twenty applications having already been received. Dinner will be served by the members of Wolf Den grange.

At the Pomona Convention, Prof. Charles A. Wheeler of the Connecticut agricultural college at Storrs and lecturer of Quinebaug Pomona grange, will have charge of the program. Country Life will be the general topic. Rev. W. F. White of Mystic will be in charge of the religious service.

WEDDING.
Belknap-Goodrich.
Miss Gladys Goodrich, daughter of Rev. Adolph Goodrich, of U. S. N. retired, formerly commandant of the Brooklyn navy yard, and Lieut. Charles Belknap, U. S. N., were married at Christ Church, in New York, at Pomfret Monday. Rev. Chauncey Bruce Brewster, Episcopal bishop of Connecticut, officiated. Miss Ethel Sloan of Windham was maid of honor and Francis W. Belknap, brother of the groom, was best man.

The wedding was a most impressive affair. The ceremony was held in the morning at 10 o'clock. The bride was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Belknap, and her sister, Miss Belknap. The groom was accompanied by his father, Lieut. Charles Belknap, and his brother, Francis W. Belknap.

Three-Hundred-Pound Prisoner Arrested with Difficulty.
Mrs. Annie Watson, colored, weight 300 pounds (official's estimate), was in the city court yesterday on charges of breach of the peace and intoxication. She was fined $3 on each count and cost of $4.00.

The arrest of Mrs. Watson by Officers Hayes and Dupre created a sensation Saturday night that attracted several hundred onlookers. The woman was found on Oak Hill in such a complete state of intoxication as to make it almost impossible for them to transport her to the police station.

The prisoner's vocal apparatus remained in order, and the shrieks she emitted caused hundreds of the Saturday night shoppers to swarm about the officers on their way to the station.

Deer at Railroad Station.
A pretty deer came over to the railroad station from the rear of Mullin's store and across Union square about 7 o'clock Monday morning.

The deer was shot by a man named John Smith, who was walking on the tracks and then down the embankment on the East Side.

The handsome creature was watched with interest by both the station and along the route towards the northeastern part of the city.

TO REORGANIZE.
Final Decision of Putnam Social and Athletic Club.

It has been decided to reorganize the Putnam Social and Athletic club, which gave boxing and wrestling exhibitions in St. John's hall last winter. The members of the club, numbering about 100 at the time, have decided to be assessed fifty cents for a renewal of their membership cards.

Jack and Annie Come to Grief.
"Jack" and "Annie," a young couple from Pomfret, other names not known, were married in Pomfret street about 11 o'clock Saturday night. Sergeant Hayes said Monday that he saw the couple set into the team near the railroad station. The bride was walking on Pomfret street. They started to drive down the steep incline, but only a short distance when the vehicle struck a big telegraph pole near the bridge at Carriage park. "Annie" shot up in the air like a rocket and landed on the street. The horse dragged "Jack" across the bridge.

When Sergeant Hayes picked the young couple up, both of them were all right, but just as he was leaving her to go to Jack's assistance she swooned and fell on the bridge in a dead faint. It finally proved, however, that neither was badly hurt, although their team was badly damaged.

Treat Companion's Wound and Dig Rifle Ball from His Leg.

Alex. Rogers, 13, of Windset, was accidentally shot in the leg by a comrade named Carter over two weeks ago. The rifle ball imbedded itself in the calf next to the bone.

Rogers and Carter, after awaiting their three young companions on the squirrel hunting trip to see, returned to the physician and surgeon. They plugged the wound with cotton and kept it on each afternoon after school and with a jackknife finally extracted the rifle ball. Rogers had to disclose the secret to his mother Thursday night when she discovered the wound, which had healed perfectly.
